Summary of meeting:

Ken Abel of the Howland Rotary asked on the status of the cameras. Cameras installed and a temporary camera has been installed at one location until the post has been completed for the permanent placement of the camera.

Kevin Speicher, Supt. Of Howland Schools: sent a text about resident attending board meeting and requesting that there be a paved area from the residential area to the park. Explained that the area is a wetland and would be willing to put stone but they were not interested in stone.

Tonya Rogers, legal representative: drafting complaint regarding TNDK.

Tiger Town Playground: Repairs were made but there are patches again in the same section of the playground. Noted that the other side that had been put in does not have any holes. The company will come in the Spring to fix.

Jones & Young: still working on finding grants for improvements to the park.

Attested by:

Vivian McDowell, Deputy Clerk
