Summary of meeting:

May 25th will be Senior Service Day from 9 to 11 a.m. The following day, May 26th, the Howland Township Trustees have agreed to chip all the debris along the road in the Rosegarden Park.

Commissioner Pompelia had a sign made for the entrance located at Clifton Drive advertising "Music in the Park" 2023 schedule.

Cameras are scheduled to be installed around June 1st.

Carmela Neilson, 1431 Castillion Drive: The creek flowing beside her house has been flooding her yard and other yards. Wanted to know what the Park was going to do since they own property at the end. Commissioner Pompelia said it needs to be looked at in regards to who is responsible for the ditch and what is causing the flooding. The Park does not have the funds to repair if it is our property causing issue. The water is flowing down hill and bring all the silt and debris causing the issue with flooding. Suggested that she attend Trustee meeting and explain the issue.

Ms. Neilson said there is a tree that needs cut down located at the bend by Chuck Aldridge's home (1421 Castillion). Commissioners will look into.

May 24th is Senior Sunset at 6 A.M.
